Dear Mrs. Chapman,

After an interval so long that I am really ashamed of it, I got your notes into the mail yesterday, and they should arrive in due course. Things outside the heavy routine of my teaching get attention in a very hit and miss fashion. Please excuse my tardiness.

Will I ever give you the Thomas Land battle in through some old volumes of Edgecombe records but got no help from them. The date of their baptism fits our problem of the Richards. I found that many of the people went to Edgecombe County; Pope and Loxley, to take names from my notes spread open before me.

I have been trying to locate various places and place names occurring in the early baptismal records to place the land. Wainwright Bay seems to stand for present

Burnell Bay and New Town Horse River for Chuckatuck Creek. I can't place Castle's Creek, Hutchinsons Creek or Goose Hill Creek. Settlements on Blackwater began earlier than I suspected.

Cordially yours,

Rupert Taylor

Note 1. Jan 13, 1747-8. Gene Stealy and Joseph Atkinson of Brunswick County sold to Richard Thomas 100 a by survey at a Spanish Creek - bounded by a line of marked trees of Mrs. Bacon - cor. of Gene Stealy and Joseph Atkinson -

In 1756 Richard Thomas (R) and wife Eliza deeded to son they went and the wife a tract of land "given me by land of John from my father Richard Thomas" corner of Bacon's land - (assume to be that of tract bought in Jan. 1747-8.)

In Nov. 9, 1752 in Southampton County, the court ordered that an apprehension be made of ~~estate~~ of Richard Thomas, then dead. Appraisement ^{made} ~~estimated~~ Dec. 9, 1752 and an account current made March 8, 1752-3 by Thomas Peyton at whose house he died.

See page 386, by Dr. over book 1746-52, bond of Gene Stealy and Joseph Atkinson to Richard Thomas to perform covenants. I do not see nothing of the 1747-8 and which may show the covenants. If there were an estate which I did not catch it. The bond might be in Brunswick Co. the bond might be to the son to perform covenants to the father who died in Southampton Co. Perhaps the bond still exists among the old papers on top of the attic (I was filled with these) in the Clerk's Office - this land seems to have joined a tract Richard (R) Thomas bought of Atwood in 1748 and gave to his son John in 1756

Dear Mrs. Chapman,

My long delay in acknowledging the receipt of your last letter and the note that came separately is due to the fact that they arrived just before midyear examinations which kept me busy until February 6 and that since that time I have had little consecutive time for study of the note and working with my own.

First for your Lambert line. I looked through a few family histories in our library but found no reference to that line. I then used the index to the first 12 or 16 ^(all we have here) volumes of the S.C. Historical and Genealogical magazine, and found (vol. 10, p. 11) that according to Abstract of Court of Ordinary, Benjamin Lambert was an appraiser of the estate of William North, Sept. 17, 1697, - and (vol. 12, p. 137) that in 1736 Richard Lambert married Mary Crastley(?) at the Independent Church. Richard and Benjamin do not seem Huguenot first names. So perhaps Mr. Saller is right. The Lamberts may have married into Huguenot families, however, and thus give rise to the Moore tradition.

I am enclosing some illustrative charts of the various Thomas families,

As to the William Thomas to whom Silvester Skid gave a lease in 1701, notice that it is called an agreement based on "valuable consideration already received in hand" and that the lease runs for his life. He was living on that tract when she made her will on Dec. 17, 1706, the first item of which gives to "loving friend Mary the wife of Henry Baker the land I dwell on known by the name of ye Roche, all the rest of my land within that tract of land (that is to say) that plantation Andrew Griffon, Sarah Grifford, John Bidgood, William Thomas and Benjamin — now dwell on, the whole containing 550 a — — — — and after her decease, I give and bequeath to my God-daughter Mary, the daughter of Henry and Mary Baker — — — —"

I have note Brit Book 2.81 (or 86) that Baker sold this land to Foster in 1717 & Page 92 that Foster sold it to Thomas Skid I may be mistaken in the ground. Perhaps the deeds will show whether William Thomas was living then or not.
Who was this William Thomas and why did Silvester Skid give him the lease? My mind goes back to the will of John Jennings in December 1695 in which he mentions sister Sarah Luck, brother William Thomas son George Jennings and mother Susanna Hill and name as executor Susanna Hill and my brother William Thomas. Mother Susanna Hill was the mother of his deceased wife Mary. Was William Thomas a half-brother, the husband of a sister, or the husband of one of Madame Hill's daughters? Was the last a settlement of joint executor-ship? I have no notes on John Jennings's family at all but I have the recollection that his son George died as a child.

Apparently also Madame Hill outlined all her descendants, for she named none in her will and left all her land outside town her sister's descendants. Martha Thropp one of the witnesses to the deed was a witness & mill of John Jennings. William Thomas in 1702 appraised Peter Fitch whose property lay next to Madame Hill's property. Fitch had married Isaac Fenn.
Apparently the same William Thomas witnessed Parson &
Kee in 1703 and appraised Isaac and Shelton's estate in 1704.
He might be the same William Thomas who witnessed Richard Gledhill's will in 1714. ^(The W. identifies him with the one who bought 1/2 of James' land in N.C.) Gledhill was apparently the widower of Mary already the widow of James Day in 1700 and of John Johnson in 1707 or 1709. The land Madame Hill came to William Thomas touched the Day land.

As to the deed of Nov. 6, 1719 from John Thomas of the Up. Parish, Gent. to Thomas Day, I do not think this the land given by Mrs. Hill. This Thomas Day must be to his nephew Thomas Day who when he died left a plea of it as a codicil to his will, See Will 6. 12. It was on Wakefields Run. As I was not much interested in the latter days I did not take full note but my recollection is that the first Thomas Day bought land from some one else before he bought of John Thomas. The Wakefields Run makes me suspect it was part of patent to John Thorne and John Wakefield in 1668 or land they bought from Bell in 1665 and divided in 1674. Both pieces of land apparently were south of Blackwater and one joined John Clark, Henry Gresh and part was sold by Robert Sherrer, grandson of John, in 1743 to Richard Thomas. This John Thomas brother of Upper Parish was not the same as our John Thomas of Lower Parish who died in 1725. I don't know who he was, but the reference to dividing line made by jury between him and Philip Whedon and wife Sarah, sister your say Sarah was a Jennings makes me wonder if Sarah Whedon is not the Sarah daughter of John Jennings mill and John Thomas a son of brother William Thomas - and with Sarah Whedon joint heir of Jennings. I have no notes at all to prove or disprove this suspicion.

 The history of the land, if traced might help.

Whom became of William the son of Philip Thomas who left him only money in his will and all the rest of his property to son John? I could not find that Philip Thomas owned any land. He may have been the Wm Thomas who in 1684 appeared estate of John Wilson along with Robert Stas and John Brantley but that was, because of association I have, perhaps mistakenly identified with the William Thomas who had dealings with Jennings and Madam Still. Edward Goudson died in 1722 and John Thomas in 1700. Perhaps the William who died in 1728 was the son of Philip. ~~He may have been the William Thomas, Taylor, who bought land from Joseph Franco.~~ The William Thomas who died & wife Grace in 1688 by his initials W seems to be the one who bought of Jasper and went to N.C. The William who died in 1741 leaving sons Richard and Samuel seems to me related to the Philip Thomas line because of that very name. I first put him down as the son of Philip until I found that Samuel was so young. Found out in Southampton in 1751. Apparently this Samuel was the son of William Thomas, tailor, who bought of Franco in 1740. Samuel Thomas of N.C. in 1758 sold the Franco lands.

My guess may be only more confusing. If the imputed guesses are wrong, however, they may lead somewhere.

May I keep your notes a little longer? Thanks for them

Cordially yours,

Rupert Taylor

My dear Mrs. Chapman,

The enclosed sheets should have been contained in my last letter & you as containing miscellaneous items that may help in checking up on the Thomas land.

They got separated from the others and came to light after my letter was written.

A note came from Miss Georgia Day gracefully expressing her pleasure of hearing about a kinsman and asking how I am related to the Day family. She spoke of having visited the city library and of being disappointed in finding so few English wills.

In my last letter I failed to say that it would give me great pleasure to look for your S.C. line. Our library has little material save the S.C. Historical and Genealogical magazine. If I cannot find it, I can perhaps learn by inquiry some one in the state who may be able to help.

Cordially yours,

 John Day made Power of Attorney to Hist. & Gen. Register Jan. 1894. p. 115

A ship was chartered in London in 1607 to bring a number of London
 Merchants to colonize va as Davis Tick has always gone by that name from va early settlement. I gather that one Day was one. The names can be verified.

She will leaving so little to the children mentioned calls to mind the fact that all the property was for years entailed, and went to the oldest sons, and very little, never land to the younger children. After that statute derogating the law of Primogeniture some still entailed their land for the three generations allowed by law. You will remember the diamonds that came to A. Day my husband's Sam acquainted with several families who inherit on the female branch for the first time, since the country was settled.

My dear Georgie

I do not think that you will find any flaw in tracing your descent from Capt James Day and Sarah Bennett

The line is recorded down to one John Day who seems to have been an only child and left an orphan, for all the records in his name are signed by his guardian. Also his mother married again and died before he was of age.

One of three grandfathers of yours married a Middleton. Now Arthur Middleton was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence - - -

I forgot to say that the diamond ring mentioned in the will came by inheritance to Dr Day who promptly lost the diamonds out of it. I have the setting.

In the list of wills at Bristol published by the British Records Society are named the wills of John Day (1615), Thomas (1645), Sibell (1672), Mary 1679, William Day 1717, John 1714. An abstract of the will of Thomas Band, of London, Gent., 26 Aug. 1674 names his dau. Sarah Day, the wife of Joseph Day and grandson Joseph Day.

An abstract of the will of Thomas Band of London merchant 25 Nov. 1700, names sister Sarah Day and his brothers two daus. Sarah and Margaret Band. New Engl. Hist. & Gen. Register Vol 48, pp. 113-114. It is probable that Joseph Day was somehow related to James Day of Isle of Wight Mary Hill wd. First, Thomas Band died before 1676; second, Luke Cropley! See Richard Bennetts will in Appendix, William & Mary Quart. Vol. 7.

Aunt James Day says that Thomas Day Hill 1723. was a bachelor. (from notes)
